

Springfield MO Emergency Plumber Now One Click Away With New Push-to-Talk Feature On Benjamin Franklin Plumbing Website

Leading Springfield MO plumbing company announces new emergency plumber website button for local residents to reach Ben Franklin Plumbing in an emergency.

Springfield, MO (PRWEB) April 22, 2014 -- Top plumbing firm in Springfield, MO adds a plumbing emergency "Push to Talk" button to its popular website. This innovative tool makes it possible to establish voice contact with the company in less than a minute. Benjamin Franklin Plumbing has earned the reputation as a punctual plumbing company, responding quickly to the needs of their customers. Now, adding this function to their website makes it even easier to reach an emergency plumber when needed.

Many situations arise where prompt access to a professional plumber can save time, money, and more extensive repairs. When these occur, homeowners are often too flustered or unable to access a phone number or cannot take the time to look for a number. With this Push to Talk option, customers can simply do a quick search from any computer, smartphone or smart mobile device, click the button, and be talking to a company representative in less than sixty seconds.

Benjamin Franklin Plumbing professionals noted their ongoing efforts to anticipate the needs of their customers. This additional capability allows the company to provide that next level of service when customers need them most. Benjamin Franklin Plumbing keeps a fully qualified plumbing team on standby 24/7 through all weekends and holidays. They recommend that Springfield MO residents bookmark the website for easy access in the event of a plumbing emergency.

While the Push to Talk option is designed for emergencies, customers are welcome to select the button at any time they wish to make contact with Benjamin Franklin Plumbing for all plumbing services.
